Computerworld Names Jack Henry to 2026 List of Best Places to Work in IT

December 9, 2025

Financial technology company recognized as a top work environment for technology professionals

MONETT, Mo., Dec. 9, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Jack Henry™ (Nasdaq: JKHY) has been recognized by Foundry's Computerworld as a 2026 Best Place to Work in IT. This award recognizes the top organizations that challenge their IT staffs while providing great benefits, engagement, and training opportunities. Jack Henry ranked No. 24 among large organizations on the Best Places to Work in IT list.

"Our IT professionals are dedicated to developing innovative solutions that help banks and credit unions win and meet the ever-changing needs of their accountholders," said Jack Henry President and CEO Greg Adelson. "At Jack Henry, we are committed to attracting and retaining top industry talent through our dynamic and rewarding work environment, and we're thrilled to once again be included in this ranking of top workplaces."

"It's clear that AI is having a disruptive impact on IT operations and IT talent," said Barbara Call, Global Director of Content Strategy at Foundry. "This year's honorees demonstrate how organizations are proactively evolving their talent strategies to fill much-needed skills gaps and reskill existing staff to be more resilient and responsive to changing needs."

The Best Places to Work in IT list is an annual ranking of the top work environments for technology professionals by Computerworld. The list is compiled based on a comprehensive questionnaire regarding company offerings in categories such as benefits, career development and training, workplace culture, workplace modernization, IT growth, and employee engagement and retention. In addition, the rankings are reviewed and vetted by a panel of industry experts.
