Jack Henry Named One of America's Top 100 Most Loved Workplaces® for 2026

November 9, 2026

Financial technology company recognized for culture, employee growth, and retention for fifth consecutive year.

MONETT, Mo., Nov. 9, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Jack Henry® (Nasdaq: JKHY) has once again been named to the 2026 America's Top 100 Most Loved Workplaces® list, developed by Best Practice Institute. Jack Henry ranked No. 12 out of 100 companies, marking the fifth consecutive year the company has placed in the top 20 on this prestigious list.

"Being recognized again as one of America's Most Loved Workplaces is a tremendous honor," said Jack Henry President and CEO Greg Adelson. "This achievement reflects the culture our associates create every day through their dedication, collaboration, and commitment to one another. Their belief in our mission and in each other's success is what makes Jack Henry a workplace people are proud to be part of."

Published as a custom feature in The Wall Street Journal, America's Top 100 Most Loved Workplaces is based on research into how employees feel about their workplace, including whether they feel respected, believe in the company's future, and see their own values reflected in how the organization operates.

"What separates these organizations is that accountability does not belong to a select few. People throughout the organization are encouraged to contribute ideas, take ownership, solve problems, and help move the business forward. They create opportunities for people to grow, trust and respect one another, and turn ideas into action," said Louis Carter, founder and CEO of Best Practice Institute and creator of the Most Loved Workplace® certification and rankings.
